

Wanted: Table Tennis Table

Does anyone have a table-tennis table they would be happy to donate to the PPA hall? We used to have one but it wore out and was discarded. It would be good to have another. Maybe that someone has one sitting in the garage that never gets used? If you can help, please contact Chris Cosslett at cosslett.hunter@paradise.net.nz or on 972 3490.

Night Rogaine in the Hills

Pat van Berkel

A 3-hour night rogaine (like orienteering) will be held on the Pinehaven and Silverstream hills and flats on Tuesday 9 August. Warning: there may be people crashing and clambering around hills with head torches shining between trees and -dare I say it- swearing as they change their minds about a shortcut. But most will happily explore tracks, find the control points and return to base at 9pm or earlier.

You are welcome to take part – in teams of 2 or more (for safety, as it is night time). Children are best partnered with an adult. Find out more on <http://www.mapsport.co.nz/wellyrog/aboutwerog.html>

The actual event is described at <http://www.orienteering.org.nz/events/afterwork-rogaine-pinehaven/>. We have yet to decide the starting location (in Pinehaven or Silverstream) so check this last link closer to the time. Be at the start (preferably with compass but not essential) by 5:30pm to pay and get your map so you can plan your route before the 6pm start. Some pizza will be available at 9pm. For more information, ring Pat van Berkel, 5288072 or 021 1459 789

The PPA is a voluntary organisation promoting Pinehaven interests. Donations to aid our work can be made via cheque at the Pinehaven Library or online banking to account 03-0774-0857067-00. All contributions gratefully accepted.

Café Culture Comes to Pinehaven

Hayley Read

Little Haven has proudly thrown open the doors to a brand new boutique shop in Jocelyn Crescent, bringing General Eclectic, Citta Design and 100% Fair Trade and Organic People's Coffee to Pinehaven. The new shop is in the heart of the local community, opposite the library, to cater for the growing Pinehaven population. Local owners Kim and Rachael said "the shop just made sense."

"The row of shops is often one of the first things the general public sees," says Rachael. "Pinehaven is a rapidly growing area with many young families moving into the area and we're delighted to be able to have a presence here."

"As Pinehaven locals, it was important to us to offer people a place to source unique items for their homes while offering quality coffee. We hope to be able to contribute widely to the local community by getting involved in the Pinehaven School Gala and the Art and Craft Exhibition." Kim said.

The store is open Tuesday to Sunday 9am – 4pm.
