The Pinehaven Art and Craft Weekend

Melody and Mel

The Pinehaven Art and Craft exhibition features an impressive range of art: painting, sculpture, pottery, wood, fabric, sewing and lots more. We have over one hundred exhibitors, from within our community and all around New Zealand. Every year we feature a different guest artist.

We are pleased to announce that Karin McCombe Jones will be this year's Guest Exhibitor.

Karin is a Pinehaven resident, a multi-disciplinary artist and has previously been on the Art and Craft committee for some years.

Recurring themes in her work are her love of 'the whimsical' and her passion for movement, especially when working in bronze. Her paintings are often bold, suggestive observations of a captured moment. When painting she believes strongly in the importance of colour: its necessity in one's life and the refreshment gained by observing colour in its glorious undiluted splendour.

Opening night is a community event with live music, wine, and nibbles, offering the first chance to purchase the very best items on show. It's also a wonderful time to catch up with friends and neighbours. Throughout the weekend, a café offers coffee, tea and home baking. Whether you are interested in finding that special piece of art for yourself, gifts for family and friends, or simply enjoying the amazing range of work on display, the Pinehaven Art and Craft Exhibition is not to be missed.

Exhibition times will be 16-18 September 2016: Friday 7pm-10pm; Saturday 9am-5pm and Sunday 10am -3pm. We hope to see you there.
